

Notting Hill & Ealing
High School GDST

Appointment of

Assistant Head –Teaching and Learning

For September 2017

About the School

Notting Hill & Ealing High School is one of London's leading independent girls' day schools. Founded in 1873 it is the oldest of the 26 schools which make up the Girls' Day School Trust having begun life in Notting Hill and moved to Ealing in 1930. The school is a friendly and welcoming community of just over 900 girls, together with approximately 220 teaching and support staff. We occupy a site in suburban, leafy, west Ealing with excellent transport links. (We are an easy walk or bus ride from Ealing Broadway or West Ealing stations: District and Central underground lines, mainline trains and Crossrail from 2018.) The school is oversubscribed and a very popular choice at all ages with girls joining us from most parts of West London as well as areas further afield.

NHEHS is an academically selective school. Our girls are bright, enthusiastic and eager to learn and teaching here is a great experience. In our latest ISI inspection we achieved the highest possible grades across the board and the inspectors noted that 'the quality of the pupils' achievements and learning is exceptional.' Public examination results are consistently outstanding and girls go on to study a wide range of subjects at prestigious universities. (Latest results and the university destinations of Leavers can be found on our web site). Our facilities and teaching and learning resources are excellent and the GDST has an ongoing strategy of development and investment in all its schools. .

We are an all through school (ages 4-18). Around 300 girls attend the Junior School with 600 in the Senior School of whom 150 are in the Sixth Form.) The Junior and Senior Schools occupy their own parts of the site and in day-to-day terms operate independently. There are strong links between staff in both Junior and Senior departments with some notable examples of integrated teaching particularly in music and sport.

You will find Notting Hill & Ealing girls to be well grounded, confident and independent. They are proud of their school and value kindness and laughter, fun and friendship. The school is highly regarded for the way it achieves its outstanding results within a particularly warm and supportive environment. We put pastoral care and achieving the best for every girl at the heart of everything we do here and there is a deep-seated ethos of respect, tolerance and understanding.

"We are delighted that you are considering NHEHS and hope that you will want to apply for this post once you have found out a little more about us. Our website, www.nhehs.gdst.net will tell you more about the school and give you a taste of the atmosphere here."

Matthew Shoults, Headmaster

Assistant Head (Teaching and Learning)

The Post

The post is available from September 2017.

The successful candidate will play a key role in developing the quality of teaching and learning in the School, including initiatives focussed on professional development opportunities; he/she will also be a member of the Senior Leadership Team and contribute to whole-school planning and development.
