Junior School PE teacher (0.6)
Maternity Cover from January 2019

Notting Hill and Ealing High School

NHEHS is a leading selective girls' school located in Ealing, west London. We teach approximately 870 girls aged 4-18. There are 310 girls in the Junior School (4-11) and 570 girls in the Senior School, of which about 140 are in the sixth form.

The school is part of the Girls' Day School Trust and is very highly regarded particularly for the way in which it achieves outstanding results within an exceptionally warm and supportive community.

NHEHS Junior School

The Junior School is a happy community of pupils, parents and staff, working together to provide an environment in which girls' strengths are allowed to flourish. We achieve excellent academic results, for example the school was named as the Independent Preparatory school of the Year in 2018 by The Sunday Times Parent Power Survey. Our girls achieve the highest academic standards at age 11 and almost all go on to the Senior School, one of west London's most popular and successful selective, independent girls' schools.

However, this is only one aspect of our school. We encourage girls to approach the world with curiosity and creativity, to express their views and feelings, and to develop a real enjoyment of learning. As a result they are proud of their school and value kindness and laughter, fun and friendship.

Life at NHEHS is rich, busy and varied. Visits, trips, speakers and special events are built into our curriculum and girls are provided with outstanding opportunities to develop their interests in a wide range of areas. They love music, drama, sport and art and they take part in everything they do with wholehearted enthusiasm.

The Post

We are looking for a well-qualified, part-time (3 days a week) PE graduate with excellent subject knowledge and a real passion for sport to cover a maternity leave from the end of January 2019. The successful candidate will teach PE across all the Junior School year groups. He or she will be fully committed to the school's broad extra-curricular and fixtures programme and will be encouraged to bring fresh ideas to the department and to contribute to whole-school initiatives. The post will suit any experienced candidate or newly qualified teacher. There is also the possibility of some teaching in our Senior School.

PE Curriculum in the Junior School

All girls from Reception to Year 6 have 2 PE lessons a week. The duration of these lessons varies according to age. For the younger girls much of the activity revolves around developing co-ordination, balance and ball skills.

As they get older, they are introduced to the rules and skills of games such as netball, hockey and rounders and get the chance to try running and some athletics. The emphasis is always on taking part, enjoying yourself and doing your best. Girls from Year 5 and Year 6 can try for places in school teams and take part in fixtures and tournaments against other London schools, as well as the GDST netball, cross country and swimming rallies.

All classes will swim at some point in the year, using the pool in the Senior School and swimming squads and teams involve girls from Year 3 upwards. This is currently taught by a specialist swimming coach.
